Introduction

Mary Shelley’s classic novel, Frankenstein, was first published in 1818. It was written in the days before steam travel, when the world seemed much bigger than it does today. Only the bravest adventurers could visit distant places and discover the secrets they held. It was possible that there could be things — things created by humans — that would terrify anyone who saw them.

Science was progressing extremely quickly, and it seemed that anything and everything was possible as humans found new and powerful ways to create and to destroy.

At the same time, medicine was finding new ways to cure sick people and to make people live longer. This raised questions about the nature of life itself. For example, if a dying man could be saved and brought back to life, could a dead man also be brought back to life? What about a dead person made from parts of other dead people? Could a creature like that be given life as well?

Where would it end? Would it go too far?

Indeed, in the early days of scientific advances, anything and everything seemed possible ...
NEAR THE COAST OF RUSSIA...
FROM THE LETTERS OF ROBERT WALTON:

LETTER 1 - DECEMBER 11, 17--
MY DEAR SISTER,
I AM ALREADY FAR FROM LONDON. THE COLD NORTHERN WIND ON MY FACE FILLS ME WITH HAPPINESS. IT GIVES ME A TASTE OF THE WONDERFUL PLACE I AM GOING TO. AT THE NORTH POLE, MARGARET, THE SUN IS ALWAYS IN THE SKY. IT IS A LAND OF BEAUTY AND AMAZING SIGHTS.
I HAVE DREAMED OF MAKING THIS VOYAGE SINCE I WAS A CHILD. I HAVE READ TRAVELERS’ DESCRIPTIONS OF THEIR ATTEMPTS TO FIND THE NORTH PACIFIC OCEAN.

DO I NOT DESERVE TO ACHIEVE SOMETHING GREAT? I HAVE DECIDED NOT TO HAVE AN EASY, COMFORTABLE LIFE BUT TO GO ON A LONG, DIFFICULT VOYAGE.

LETTER 2 - MARCH 28, 17--
HOW SLOWLY THE TIME PASSES HERE!
I HAVE NO FRIENDS HERE, MARGARET.
IF I SUCCEED, NO ONE WILL FEEL PLEASED.
IF I FAIL, NO ONE WILL COMFORT ME. I CAN’T DESCRIBE MY FEELINGS AS I GET NEARER TO MY GOAL.

LETTER 3 - JULY 7, 17--
WE HAVE COME A LONG WAY NORTH. PLEASE DON’T WORRY. I WILL BE CAREFUL.

LETTER 4 - AUGUST 5, 17--
LAST MONDAY, THE SHIP WAS NEARLY SURROUNDED BY ICE, AND THERE WAS A VERY THICK FOG. WE DECIDED TO STOP MOVING AND TO WAIT FOR A CHANGE IN THE WEATHER.

AT TWO O’CLOCK, THE FOG DISAPPEARED, AND THERE WAS ICE EVERYWHERE - AS FAR AS WE COULD SEE. WE WERE WORRIED, AND THEN, IN THE DISTANCE, WE SAW SOMETHING STRANGE.

IT WAS A SLED ABOUT HALF A MILE AWAY. A HUGE MAN WAS DRIVING IT. WE WERE AMPLED TO SEE SOMEONE SO FAR FROM LAND. WE WERE UNABLE TO FOLLOW HIM BECAUSE WE WERE STUCK IN THE ICE.
THE NEXT MORNING WHEN I WOKE UP, ALL THE SAILORS WERE TALKING TO SOMEONE IN THE SEA. IT WAS, IN FACT, A SIMILAR BLEED, WHICH HAD COME TOWARD US IN THE NIGHT ON A LARGE PIECE OF ICE. THE MAN ABOARD WAS NOT NICE LIKE THE OTHER TRAVELER, BUT A EUROPEAN. THE SAILORS WERE PERSUADING HIM TO COME ONTO THE SHIP.

I THINK WE'VE SEEN HIM. WE SAW A MAN ON A SLED. SOME DOGS WERE PULLING IT ACROSS THE ICE.

WHY DID YOU COME SO FAR ON THE ICE?

I WAS LOOKING FOR SOMEONE WHO HAD RUN AWAY FROM ME.

DO YOU THINK THAT WHEN THE ICE BROKE IT DESTROYED HIS SLEDS?

THE ICE DIDN'T BREAK UNTIL NEARLY MIDNIGHT. HE WAS PROBABLY SAFE BY THEN.

THE STRANGER SUDDENLY SEEMED MORE ALIVE.

HERE IS OUR CAPTAIN, AND HE WON'T LET YOU DIE OUT ON THE ICE.

COULD YOU TELL ME WHERE YOU'RE GOING?

WE'RE ON A VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY TO THE NORTH POLE.

HE WAS NEARLY FROZEN AND EXTREMELY TERRIBLE. I HAVE NEVER SEEN A MAN IN SUCH A TERRIBLE STATE. SLOWLY WE HELD HIM. RECOVER. TWO DAYS PASSED BEFORE HE WAS ABLE TO SPEAK.

AUGUST 13, 17--

I LIKE MY GUEST MORE AND MORE EVERY DAY. I ADMIRE HIM AND ALSO FEEL SORRY FOR HIM. HE HAS NOW RECOVERED FROM HIS ILLNESS.
MY NAME IS VICTOR FRANKENSTEIN. MY PARENTS WERE FROM GENEVA AND WERE VERY WELL RESPECTED THERE. AFTER THEY MARRIED, THEY TRaveled TO ITALY, GERMANY, AND NAPLES. I WAS BORN IN NAPLES.

YOU CAN SEE, CAPTAIN WALTON, THAT I HAVE SUFFERED GREATLY.

YOU ARE LOOKING FOR KNOWLEDGE AS I DID. I HOPE IT WILL NOT HURT YOU AS IT HURT ME. YOU MAY LEARN SOMETHING FROM MY STORY.

LISTEN TO IT, YOU'LL SEE HOW NOTHING CAN CHANGE MY DESTINY NOW.

FOR SEVERAL YEARS, I WAS THEIR ONLY CHILD. THEY LOVED ME DEEPLY.

WE WERE BROUGHT UP TOGETHER. THERE WAS LESS THAN A YEAR BETWEEN OUR AGES.

WHEN MY PARENTS HAD ANOTHER SON, WE WENT BACK TO GENEVA AND SETTLED THERE.

IN GENEVA, I BECAME CLOSE FRIENDS WITH HENRY CEDWAL. HE LOVED READING AND WRITING STORIES.

ELIZABETH LAVENZA BECAME MORE THAN A SISTER TO ME. WE DID EVERYTHING TOGETHER. I LOVED HER VERY MUCH.

WHEN I WAS ABOUT FIVE YEARS OLD, MY MOTHER ADOPTED A LITTLE GIRL. SHE WAS THE DAUGHTER OF A NOBLEMAN WHO HAD DIED.

ELIZABETH WAS KIND AND LOVING. SHE SHOVED CERVAZIAL THE BEAUTY OF GOODNESS.

I READ WITH GREAT PLEASURE THE WORKS OF MEN WHO HAD STUDIED NATURE AND DISCOVERED ITS SECRETS.

THE THUNDER WAS FRIGHTENINGLY LOUD.

I BECAME THEIR FOLLOWER. I DIDN'T WANT MONEY, BUT I WANTED THE GLORY OF A GREAT DISCOVERY.

I WANTED TO FREE PEOPLE FROM DISEASE.

AS I WATCHED THE STORM, A STREAM OF FIRE SUDDENLY CAME OUT OF AN OLD TREE NEAR OUR HOUSE.

WHEN I WAS FIFTEEN, I WITNESSED A TERRIBLE STORM.

WHEN THE FIRE DIED OUT, MOST OF THE TREE HAD DISAPPEARED.
The next morning, we found that the bottom of the tree had been broken into long, thin pieces. I became interested in electricity and I began to study mathematics and other sciences.

But destiny was too powerful. She had already decided on my destruction.

When I was seventeen, my parents decided to send me to Insolstadt University.

Then Elizabeth became very sick. My mother took care of her, and Elizabeth recovered. However, then my mother became sick.

My children, I always wanted you to marry each other.

Elizabeth, my love, you must be a mother to my younger children.

I'm sad that I have to leave you, but I will try to accept death cheerfully.

I hope to see you in another world.

She died calmly.

My mother was dead.

— But he still had duties to perform. Elizabeth hid her sorrow and tried to comfort us all.

Finally, the day came when I had to go to Insolstadt.

Write often, Victor.

I loved my brothers, Elizabeth, and Clerval, but I longed to acquire knowledge.
AFTER A LONG, TIRED JOURNEY, I ARRIVED AT INGOLSTADT.

MONSIEUR KREMEP, PROFESSIONAL OF NATURAL SCIENCE, I RESPECTED HIM, ALTHOUGH I DISLIKED HIM IMMEDIATELY.

HAVE YOU REALLY SPENT YOUR TIME STUDYING THIS NONSENSE?

YES.

WHAT A WASTE OF TIME!

YOU MUST BEGIN YOUR STUDIES AGAIN!

I WENT INTO THE LECTURE HALL OF MONSIEUR WALDMAN. HE WAS VERY DIFFERENT.

THE ANCIENT TEACHERS PROMISED MUCH BUT PRODUCED NOTHING.

THE MODERN MASTERS PROMISE VERY LITTLE BUT SHOW US MUCH ABOUT NATURE.

THEY HAVE NEW POWERS OVER HEAVEN AND EARTH.

SOON, I ONLY WANTED TO EXPLORE UNKNOWN POWERS AND DISCOVER THE DEEPEST MYSTERIES OF CREATION.

THE NEXT MORNING, I DELIVERED MY LETTERS OF INTRODUCTION.

CHANCE LED ME FIRST TO ...
I found a true friend in M. Waldman. He smoothed the path of knowledge for me in a thousand ways. In the next two years, my discoveries made me well respected at the university. I was especially interested in anything that lived. I wanted to know where life came from.

To examine the cause of life, we must first examine death. To him, a graveyard was just a place that was full of dead bodies. I wasn't afraid of it. To examine dead bodies and how they decay.

For days and nights, I examined dead bodies and how they decayed. Then suddenly, after weeks of extremely hard work...

...I succeeded in discovering the cause of life!

For a long time, I wasn't sure how to use this astonishing power. I was able to create life... but to make a body remained extremely difficult. The smallness of many parts of the body made my work very slow, so I decided to make the body larger than normal—about eight feet tall.

Making this body was all I could think about. Alone in my room, I worked on my creation. Often, I hated what I was doing.

I worked so hard that I became sick and very nervous. I couldn't speak to anyone.
ON A DARK EVENING IN NOVEMBER, I FINALLY FINISHED.

HE WAS PERFECT.

GREAT GOD!

HE OPENED A PULLED YELLOW EYE.

THEN HE BEGAN TO BREATHE AND MOVE!

I HAD WORKED HARD FOR THIS MOMENT FOR TWO YEARS, BUT NOW THAT I HAD FINISHED, THE BEAUTY OF THE DREAM DISAPPEARED, AND I WAS FILLED WITH HORROR.

I PREPARED TO PUT LIFE INTO THE LIFELESS THINGS.
I couldn't bear to look at him.
I ran out of the room.

I couldn't forget the monster...

...and I had the wildest dreams.
I DREAMED ABOUT ELIZABETH. SHE WAS WALKING IN INSOLSTADT.

PLEASING AND SURPRISED, I EMBRACED HER...!

... BUT AS I KISSED HER LIPS...

... THEY TURNED DEATHLY WHITE...

... AND SHE BECAME MY DEAD MOTHER!

I WOKE UP IN HORROR.
I saw the monster that I had created.

Perhaps he spoke, but I didn't hear.

One hand reached out to stop me, but I escaped...

...and ran into the courtyard. I stayed there all night. All the time I was listening for the sound of the monster.

His ugliness was incredible. What I had dreamed of had become my hell.

When morning came, I wanted to avoid the monster.

I did not dare return to my apartment, so I walked around the town.

I didn't know where I was or what I was doing.

My heart beat hard with fear.

My dear Frankenstein!

I'm so pleased to see you!
I took his hand and quickly forgot my horror.

Henry Clerval!

My father has finally allowed me to attend university.

I’m so happy to see you, but tell me—how are my father, brothers, and Elizabeth?

Very well—and very happy. But they are a little uneasy that they hear from you so rarely.

You look very thin and pale. Have you not slept for several nights?

No, I’ve been working so hard on something that I haven’t rested properly.

But I hope that’s finished now.

I was shaking nervously as we walked to my college.

I thought the creature could still be in my apartment.

I was afraid to see him but even more afraid that Henry would see him.

Henry, wait here for a few minutes.

I felt cold with fear...

...but I saw that my enemy had gone.

I clapped my hands for joy and ran down for Henry.
The servant brought us breakfast, but I was too excited to eat. Ha-ha-ha!

What's making you like this?

Victor! What's the matter?

I thought I had seen the monster in my room.

Save me!

I fell down in a fit...

... and didn't recover for a long, long time.

He can tell you!
HENRY TOOK CARE OF ME FOR SEVERAL MONTHS. HE DIDN'T TELL
MY FAMILY ABOUT MY ILLNESS.

VERY SLOWLY, I RECOVERED.
SPRING ARRIVED, AND THIS HELPED ME.

CHAPTER VI

DEAR VICTOR,
YOU HAVE BEEN SICK, VERY SICK,
AND I AM WORRIED ABOUT YOU.
GET WELL AND COME HOME,
YOUR FATHER REALLY WANTS TO SEE YOU.

DEAREST
HENRY, HOW GOOD
YOU'VE BEEN TO ME.
YOU'VE TAKEN CARE
OF ME ALL WINTER
INSTEAD OF STUDYING.

HOW WILL I
EVER REPAY
YOU?

YOU'LL REPAY ME IF
YOU GET WELL
AS FAST
AS YOU CAN.

AND BECAUSE
YOU SEEM MUCH BETTER,
COULD YOU WRITE TO YOUR
FATHER AND ELIZABETH?
THEY'RE WORRIED BY YOUR LONG SILENCE.

YES.
I'VE BEEN THINKING ABOUT THEM.

THEN YOU'LL BE PLEASED TO SEE
THIS LETTER.

IT'S BEEN HERE FOR SOME DAYS.
IT'S FROM
ELIZABETH,
I THINK.

AND LITTLE WILLIAM IS LOVELY. HE IS VERY TALL FOR HIS AGE AND SMILES
AND LAUGHS A LOT. HE ALREADY HAS
TWO LITTLE WIVES. LOUISA IS HIS FAVORITE; SHE'S FIVE.

DO YOU REMEMBER OUR
SERVANT JUSTINE? HER MOTHER TREATED HER
BADLY SO SHE CAME TO US WHEN SHE WAS TWELVE.
You liked her very much. She could always make you feel happy.

One by one, her brothers and sister died, and her mother called her home. Sometimes her mother was sorry for what she had done. At other times, she said that Justine had caused the deaths of her brothers and sister.

But now her mother is at peace; she died at the beginning of last winter.

Justine has come back to us, and I love her dearly. She is clever, gentle, and very pretty.

I feel better now because I have written to you, dear Victor, goodbye! And please write to me.

Elizabeth Lavenza

Dear dear E. Elizabeth! I will write immediately.

I wrote and felt very tired, but it was the start of my recovery. Two weeks later, I was well enough to leave my room.

I hated natural science and the sight of my scientific equipment. I could never tell Henry about what I had done or what had happened on that terrible night.

Henry had come to the university to study the languages of the East, and I began to study them with him.

I found comfort in the writings of the eastern poets.

They wrote about a warm sun and gardens, an enemy who behaves well, and the fire that burns in your own heart.
SUMMER PASSED, AND WINTER CAME. I WANTED TO GO BACK TO GENEVA, BUT THERE WAS TOO MUCH SNOW. SPRING CAME AGAIN.

HENRY SUGGESTED THAT WE GO WALKING AROUND INSOLSTADT BEFORE WE RETURNED TO GENEVA.

WHAT AN EXCELLENT FRIEND!

FOR TWO WEEKS, WE WALKED IN THE COUNTRYSIDE. HENRY TAUGHT ME TO LOVE NATURE AGAIN AND THE HAPPY FACES OF CHILDREN.

I FELT VERY HAPPY AND HAD NO WORRIES AT ALL.

CHAPTER VII

WHEN I RETURNED TO INSOLSTADT, I FOUND THIS LETTER FROM MY FATHER.

MY DEAR VICTOR,

YOU HAVE PROBABLY WAITED FOR A LETTER SO THAT YOU CAN ARRANGE THE DATE OF YOUR RETURN. SO HOW CAN I TELL YOU ABOUT WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO US?

WILLIAM IS DEAD! THAT SWEET CHILD WHO WAS SO GENTLE! VICTOR - SOMEONE HAS MURDERED HIM!

LAST THURSDAY, WE ALL WENT FOR A WALK IN PLANPALAUS. IT WAS A BEAUTIFUL, WARM EVENING, AND WE WENT FARTHER THAN USUAL.
It was getting dark when we decided to turn back. William and Ernest had gone ahead of us, so we called for them.

At about five in the morning, I discovered my lovely boy, pale and still.

Have you seen William?

The marks of the murder's fingers were on his neck.

We were playing, and he ran away to hide.

I tried to find him and waited for him, but he hasn’t come back!

Oh, God! I’ve murdered him!

I let him wear a valuable picture of your mother around his neck, it’s gone. It must be the reason someone killed him.

We searched for him all night.

We are doing everything we can to find the murderer, but that won’t bring back my dearest William.

I couldn’t rest while he was lost.
COME HOME, DEAREST VICTOR, ONLY YOU CAN COMFORT ELIZABETH. SHE CRIES ALL THE TIME AND BLAMES HERSELF FOR WILLIAM'S DEATH. WILL YOU RETURN AND COMFORT US ALL?

MY DEAR FRANKENSTEIN, THIS IS TERRIBLE NEWS. WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO?

I'M GOING TO GENEVA IMMEDIATELY.

I SAID GOOD-BYE TO MY FRIEND, AS I GOT CLOSER TO HOME, I FELT TERRIBLY SAD AND AFRAID.

ALTHOUGH IT WAS DARK WHEN I ARRIVED IN GENEVA, I WAS UNABLE TO REST.

I DECIDED TO VISIT THE PLACE WHERE POOR WILLIAM HAD DIED. I CROSSED THE LAKE BY BOAT TO ARRIVE AT PLAINPALAIS.

LIGHTNING PLAYED ON THE MOUNTAINS, AND THUNDER CRASHED ABOVE ME.

CRACK-DOOM!

WILLIAM!

THIS IS THE SON OF YOUR FUNERAL!
As I said these words, I saw a figure in the darkness.

A flash of lightning showed me who it was...

... the devil that I had created.

What was he doing there? Could he be the murderer of my brother?

I became sure that he was.

He was the murderer!

When I saw him again, he was among the rocks near the top of the mountain...

He soon reached the top...

... and disappeared.
IT WAS ABOUT FIVE IN THE MORNING WHEN I ARRIVED AT MY FATHER'S HOUSE.

I TOLD THE SERVANTS NOT TO WAKE THE FAMILY, AND I WENT INTO THE LIBRARY.

YOU'VE FOUND HIM? HOW? IT'S IMPOSSIBLE TO FOLLOW HIM! I SAW HIM LAST NIGHT, AND HE WAS FREE!

I TOLD YOU IT WAS JUSTIN. WE HAVE DISCOVERED THAT THE MURDERER IS JUSTINE MORITZ.

POOR, POOR GIRL!SURELY NO ONE BELIEVES SHE DID IT?

I DON'T KNOW WHAT YOU MEAN!

NO ONE DID AT FIRST, BUT SHE HAS BEHAVED VERY STRANGELY RECENTLY. SHE IS APPEARING IN COURT TODAY, SO YOU WILL HEAR EVERYTHING THEN.

MY DEAREST VICTOR!

ERNEST!

AH! THIS IS SUCH A BAD TIME ...
... BUT I'M SURE YOU WILL BE ABLE TO HELP OUR FATHER AND ELIZABETH.

ELIZABETH?

SHE NEEDS COMFORT THE MOST.

SHE BLAMES HERSELF FOR WILLIAM'S MURDER, BUT NOW WE HAVE FOUND THE MURDERER.

YOU ARE ALL WRONG.

YOU KNOW THE MURDERER, AND IT IS NOT JUSTINE.

JUSTINE BECAME SICK ON THE MORNING OF THE MURDER. SHE STAYED IN BED FOR SEVERAL DAYS.

DURING THIS TIME, ONE OF THE SERVANTS FOUND THE PICTURE OF OUR MOTHER THAT WILLIAM HAD BEEN WEARING IN HER POCKET.

WHEN SHE WAS ARRESTED, SHE BEHAVED VERY STRANGELY.
YOUR ARRIVAL, VICTOR, FILLS ME WITH HOPE. I WILL NEVER BE HAPPY AGAIN IF JUSTINE DIES.

SHE IS INNOCENT. DON'T BE AFRAID.

YOUR MOTHER CALLED TO DEFEND HERSELF. AT TIMES SHE ALMOST CRIED, BUT SHE SPOKE CLEARLY.

GOD KNOWS THAT I AM COMPLETELY INNOCENT.

I SPENT THE EVENING AT MY AUNT'S HOUSE.

ON MY WAY HOME, A MAN ASKED ME IF I HAD BEEN THE CHILD WHO WAS LOST.

I SPENT MANY HOURS LOOKING FOR HIM. WHEN I TRIED TO RETURN TO GENEVA, THE GATES WERE SHUT, I HAD TO SPEND THE NIGHT IN A BARN.

IN THE EARLY MORNING, THE SOUND OF FOOTSTEPS WOKE ME. I DECIDED TO LOOK FOR THE MISSING CHILD AGAIN.

I WAS VERY TIRED WHEN I MET THE MARKET WOMAN BECAUSE I HADN'T SLEPT MUCH.

I DON'T KNOW HOW THE PICTURE GOT INTO MY POCKET. I CAN'T EXPLAIN IT.

THE COURT MUST DECIDE NOW WHAT HAPPENED TO ME.

A SOUND OF HORROR AND ANGER FILLED THE COURT.

ELIZABETH HAD PLACED IT AROUND WILLIAM'S NECK BEFORE HE DISAPPEARED.
THE NEXT MORNING, JUSTINE DIED.

THOSE I LOVED CRIED OVER THE GRAVES OF WILLIAM AND JUSTINE — THE FIRST VICTIMS OF MY CREATION.

I HAD WANTED TO HELP OTHER PEOPLE, BUT NOW EVERYTHING WAS RUIN. FULL OF GUILT, I NEEDED TO BE ALONE.

I HAD CAUSED SOME TERRIBLE EVILS, AND I WAS VERY AFRAID THAT THE MONSTER WOULD DO SOMETHING ELSE.

THE POOR SUFFERER TRIED TO COMFORT US ALL, BUT I, THE TRUE MURDERER, COULD NOT FEEL COMFORTED.

MY FATHER'S HEALTH WAS SHAKEN, AND ELIZABETH WAS VERY SAD. I FELT DEEPLY TROUBLED. ONE DAY, I SUDDENLY DECIDED TO LEAVE.

I CONFESSED, BUT I LIED. I AM INNOCENT!

OH, JUSTINE! FORGIVE ME FOR NOT TRUSTING YOU.

DO NOT FEAR — I'LL PROVE YOU'RE INNOCENT.

YOU WILL NOT DIE!

I'LL NOT BE AFRAID TO DIE.

I CAN DIE IN PEACE NOW THAT YOU AND YOUR FAMILY KNOW I'M INNOCENT.

I THOUGHT YOU WERE INNOCENT!

OH, JUSTINE!

HOW WILL I EVER BELIEVE AGAIN IN HUMAN GOODNESS?

I WILL SEE HER ALTHOUGH SHE IS GUILTY, AND YOU MUST COME WITH ME, VICTOR.

...BUT SHE HAS CONFESSED!

ALTHOUGH ELIZABETH AND OTHERS SPOKE WELL OF JUSTINE, PEOPLE IN THE COURT WERE ANGRY WITH HER.

THE NEXT MORNING, I WENT TO THE COURT. THEY DECIDED JUSTINE WAS GUILTY.
I WENT TO THE ALPINE VALLEYS BECAUSE I THOUGHT I COULD FORGET MY SORROWS THERE. AFTER A TIME, I ARRIVED AT THE VILLAGE OF CHAMONIX.

I DECIDED TO CLimb TO THE TOP OF MONTANVERT. I REMEMBERED THE VIEW FROM THE TOP. IT HAD HAD A GREAT EFFECT ON ME WHEN I FIRST SAW IT.

THE CLIMB WAS DANGEROUS. THE TOPS OF THE MOUNTAINS WERE HIDDEN IN CLOUDS, AND RAIN FALL HEAVILY FROM THE DARK SKY.

IT WAS NEARLY NOON WHEN I ARRIVED AT THE TOP OF THE MOUNTAIN. I SIT ON A ROCK AND LOOKED AT THE WONDERFUL VIEW.

MY HEART FILLED WITH JOY.

AS I SAID THIS, I SUDDENLY SAW THE FIGURE OF A HUGE MAN. HE WAS COMING TOWARD ME AT GREAT SPEED.

ALLOW ME THIS HAPPINESS OR TAKE ME AWAY FROM THE JOYS OF LIFE!

IT WAS THE MONSTER THAT I HAD CREATED. I SHOOK WITH ANGER AND HORROR. I WANTED TO FIGHT HIM AND TO KILL HIM!
BE CALM!
LISTEN TO ME.

Haven't I suffered enough? Life is dear to me, and I will defend it. Remember, that you made me more powerful than yourself; however, I won't fight you.

I am your creature. I was good, but unhappiness has made me bad. Make me happy, and I will be good again.

songs:
Friends! We are enemies. Go, or fight.

How can I make you understand? You hate me, and so does everyone else. My enemies will share my unhappiness if you do nothing. Listen to me, Frankenstein, and then, if you can and still want to, destroy the work of your hands.

I hate these hands that made you! Come to the hut on the mountain.

Listen to me. Decide if I will lead a good life or bring death to you and your friends.

I expected this. All men hate the poor and unhappy, and you - my maker - you, too, hate me and want to kill me.

Do your duty toward me, and I'll leave you and everyone else in peace, but if you refuse, I'll murder all your friends.

You monster!

Devil!
I'll finish the life that I go stupidly gave you!
I DECIDED TO LISTEN TO HIS STORY. FOR THE FIRST TIME, I REALIZED THAT AS HIS CREATOR, I HAD DUTIES TOWARD HIM. I FELT I OUGHT TO MAKE HIM HAPPY.

VOLUME II
CHAPTER III

I CAN'T REMEMBER MY FIRST DAYS VERY WELL. I DIDN'T RECOGNIZE MY DIFFERENT SENSES AT FIRST.

I WANTED TO FIND A PLACE THAT HAD SHADE, SO I WENT TO THE FOREST NEAR NAGOLSTAD.

I ATE SOME FRUIT AND DRANK FROM THE STREAM, THEN I LAY DOWN AND WENT TO SLEEP.

IT WAS DARK WHEN I WOKE UP. I FELT COLD AND FRIGHTENED. I HAD TAKEN SOME CLOTHES FROM YOUR APARTMENT, BUT THEY WERE NOT WARM ENOUGH. I SAT AND CRIED.

SOMETIMES I TRIED TO COPY THE SONGS OF THE BIRDS, BUT I COULDN'T. THE NOISES I MADE FRIGHTENED ME INTO SILENCE AGAIN.

SEVERAL DAYS AND NIGHTS PASSED. I SLOWLY BEGAN TO UNDERSTAND WHAT I SAW AND HEARD.

THERE WAS VERY LITTLE FOOD. OFTEN, IT TOOK ME THE WHOLE DAY TO FIND A FEW NUTS.

I REALLY WANTED FOOD AND SHELTER. EVENTUALLY, I SAW A SMALL HUT. THIS WAS A NEW SIGHT TO ME. I EXAMINED IT WITH INTEREST.

THE DOOR WAS OPEN, SO I WENT IN. AN OLD MAN WAS PREPARING HIS DINNER OVER A FIRE.

WHEN HE SAW ME, HE SCREAMED AND RAN AWAY.

I WAS SURPRISED, BUT I LIKED THE HUT VERY MUCH. SNOW AND SNOW COULD NOT GET IN THERE.
I HUNGRILY ATE THE OLD MAN'S BREAKFAST. THEN I LAY DOWN AND FELL ASLEEP.

IT WAS MOON WHEN I WOKE UP. THE SUN WAS WARM, SO I DECIDED TO TRAVEL FARTHER.

I WALKED FOR SEVERAL HOURS UNTIL I ARRIVED AT A VILLAGE.

SOME OF THE PEOPLE IN THE VILLAGE RAN AWAY, AND OTHERS ATTACKED ME WITH STONES. I RAN AWAY - BACK TO THE FIELDS.

AS I ENTERED ONE OF THE COTTAGES, THE CHILDREN INSIDE SCREAMED, AND ONE OF THE WOMEN FAINTED.

I HID IN A SMALL HUT. THERE WAS NOTHING IN IT, BUT IT WAS NEXT TO A PLEASANT COTTAGE. I DIDN'T DARE ENTER THE COTTAGE AFTER WHAT HAD HAPPENED IN THE VILLAGE.

MY HUT WAS MADE OF WOOD AND WAS VERY LOW. I COULD ONLY SIT IN IT WITH DIFFICULTY. THERE WAS NO WOOD ON THE FLOOR, AND THE WIND CAME IN, BUT IT WAS A GOOD SHELTER.

I LAY DOWN. I FELT HAPPY TO HAVE A SHELTER FROM THE COLD AND FROM THE UNKINDNESS OF HUMANS.
THE NEXT MORNING, I DRANK FROM THE STREAM
AND ATE SOME BREAD I HAD STOLEN. I WATCHED
THE PEOPLE IN THE COTTAGE: A GENTLE YOUNG GIRL, AN UNHAPPY YOUNG MAN, AND AN OLD MAN.

THEY SHOWED SUCH KINDNESS AND LOVE FOR EACH
OTHER THAT I BEGAN TO EXPERIENCE NEW FEELINGS.

THEY WERE A MIXTURE OF PAIN AND PLEASURE. I FOUND THEM DIFFICULT TO BEAR.

WHEN NIGHT CAME, THE PEOPLE IN THE COTTAGE
MADE LIGHT WITH CANDLES. I WAS SURPRISED ...

... AND PLEASED, I COULD CONTINUE WATCHING THEM.

THE NEXT DAY PASSED IN THE SAME WAY. I SOON
REALIZED THAT THE OLD MAN WAS BLIND. THE YOUNG PEOPLE SHOWED HIM MUCH LOVE AND RESPECT.

I WANTED VERY MUCH TO JOIN THEM, BUT I DIDN'T
DARE. I STAYED IN MY HUT AND TRIED TO UNDERSTAND THEM. THEY WEREN'T HAPPY, ALTHOUGH
I COULDN'T SEE A REASON FOR THEIR UNHAPPINESS.
I WAS VERY AFFECTED BY THE WAY THE YOUNG PEOPLE SHOWED SUCH GENTLE CREATURES UNHAPPY?

LATER, I DISCOVERED ONE REASON: THEY WERE POOR.

THEY ATE ONLY VEGETABLES AND DRANK THE MILK OF
ONE COW. THEY WERE USUALLY HUNGRY, ESPECIALLY
THE YOUNG PEOPLE. OFTEN, THEY GAVE THE OLD MAN
FOOD WHEN THEY HAD NONE FOR THEMSELVES.

WHEN I REALIZED THIS, I STOPPED STEALING THEIR FOOD. I ATE ONLY FRUIT AND NUTS FROM THE FOREST.

I FOUND ANOTHER WAY I COULD HELP THEM. AT NIGHT, I OFTEN BROUGHT THEM WOOD FOR THEIR FIRE.
And slowly I discovered that the words they spoke produced pleasure or pain, smiles or sadness. Slowly I learned the names they give to the most familiar things.

I learned the words “fire,” “milk,” “bread,” “wood” and the names of the people in the cottage.

The old man was “father.”

The girl was “sister” or “Agatha.”

The young man was “Felix,” “brother,” or “son.”

I was very happy when I discovered the meanings of these sounds and could say them. I heard other words, too—“good,” “dearest,” and “unhappy”—but I didn’t understand them.

I spent the winter in this hut.

I began to love the people in the cottage. When they were unhappy, I felt sad. When they were happy, I was happy, too.

Felix was always the saddest. He seemed to suffer deeply.

But he was able to give pleasure to his sister. He gave her the first little white flower that came up in the snow.

I admired the beauty of these people, but when I saw myself in a pool of water I was terrified.

At first, I couldn’t believe what I saw. Then I felt sad and ashamed. I was a monster.

Every day, I did the same thing: I slept during the day and went into the forest at night.

I collected my own food and wood for the family. Often, I cleared their path of snow. This surprised them very much.

I thought that I could make them happy, and I wanted to win their love. To do this, I tried hard to learn their language.
SPRING ARRIVED, BUT FELIX WAS STILL VERY SAD. THEN A VISITOR CAME.

FELIX WAS EXTREMELY HAPPY. THE LADY DIDN'T SEEM TO UNDERSTAND HIM, BUT SHE SMILED.

THE DAYS PASSED PEACEFULLY. JOY HAD TAKEN THE PLACE OF SADNESS. FELIX BEGAN TO TEACH SAHIE HIS LANGUAGE. I WATCHED THEM CLOSELY SO THAT I COULD LEARN IT, TOO. SAHIE AND I IMPROVED QUICKLY. TWO MONTHS LATER, I COULD UNDERSTAND MOST OF THE WORDS THE FAMILY SPOKE.

I LISTENED, TOO, AS FELIX TAUGHT SAHIE HISTORY. I LEARNED ABOUT THE MANNERS, GOVERNMENTS, AND RELIGIONS OF DIFFERENT COUNTRIES.

COULDN'T PEOPLE BE SO GOOD, SO WONDERFUL, SO POWERFUL, AND AT THE SAME TIME SO DREADFUL? WHEN I HEARD THE TERRIBLE THINGS PEOPLE HAD DONE, I TURNED AWAY IN HORROR.

I THOUGHT ABOUT MYSELF. WHAT WAS I? I KNEW NOTHING ABOUT MY CREATION OR MY CREATOR, I WAS EXTREMELY UGLY, AND I WASN'T THE SAME AS MEN.
I learned about men and women, the birth of children, and families.

But where were my friends and family?

No parents had taken care of me and loved me as a child.

What was it?

He was a Turkish merchant who had lived in Paris for many years. Then the government threw him into prison and sentenced him to death.

There was no reason for this. People said the government disliked his religion and his wealth.

The Turk offered him money, but Felix refused. Then he saw Safe and wanted to marry her.

Felix took Safe and her father out of France. The merchant encouraged Felix's hopes for Safe, but secretly he did not want her to marry a Christian. He planned to take his daughter away.
THE MERCHANT'S ESCAPE WAS SOON DISCOVERED, AND FELIX'S FATHER AND SISTER WERE THROWN INTO PRISON.

HE WAS THROWN INTO PRISON, TOO, HE, HIS FATHER, AND SISTER STAYED THERE FOR FIVE MONTHS.

ONE OF THE BOOKS WAS PARADISE LOST.

I ATE IT AS A TRUE HISTORY. I WAS LIKE AGAIN. I WAS NOT LINKED TO ANYONE ELSE, LIKE HIM.

BUT HE WAS HAPPY, AND I WAS MiserABLE.

MUCH EARLIER, I HAD FOUND SOME PAPERS IN THE CLOTHES I HAD TAKEN FROM YOUR APARTMENT. I BEGAN TO READ THEM CAREFULLY.

THEY WERE YOUR JOURNAL OF THE MONTHS BEFORE MY CREATION.

HERE THEY ARE. THEY DESCRIBE IN DETAIL MY DISGUSTING BODY.

I FELT SICK AS I READ THEM.

THE MERCHANT HEARD THAT FELIX HAD NO MONEY. HE TOLD HIS DAUGHTER NOT TO THINK OF FELIX ANY MORE.

A FEW DAYS LATER, HE LEFT FOR CONSTANTINOPLE. SARIE WAS NOW ALONE. IN HER FATHER'S PAPERS, SHE FOUND THE NAME OF FELIX'S NEW HOME IN GERMANY. SHE DECIDED TO GO THERE.

VOLUME II
CHAPTER VII

THIS WAS THE STORY OF THE DEAR PEOPLE IN THE COTTAGE.

I LEARNED TO ADMIRE GOODNESS AND TO DISLIKE THE 'WRONG THINGS' PEOPLE DO.

ONE NIGHT IN THE FOREST, I FOUND SOME BOOKS IN A LEATHER BAG. I QUICKLY BEGAN TO READ THEM.

WHY DID YOU MAKE A MONSTER? EVEN YOU CANNOT LOOK AT ME!

YOU MADE ME NOT THE SAME AS YOU, BUT WORSE.
I decided to introduce myself to the people in the cottage when the time was right. Months passed, then one day, when the old man was alone, I knocked on the door of the cottage.

Who's there? Come in.

I'm an unfortunate creature. I have no relation or friend in the world.

I'm now going to claim the protection of some friends. These good people have never seen me.

If I fail with them, no one will ever be my friend.

They are kind, but where they should see a kind friend, they only see a monster.

I have shown them kindness, but they believe that I want to injure them.

Pardon me. I'm a traveler and I need a little rest. Could I sit for a few minutes by the fire?

Come in, but I can't offer you any food because I'm blind.

I have food. I only need warmth and rest.

Perhaps I can help. What are the names of those friends?

At that moment, I heard the steps of the younger people.
Now is the time! Save and protect me!

You and your family are the friends I'm looking for!

Great God! Who are you?

I cannot describe their horror when they saw me.

Agatha fainted, and Bate ran away. Felix tore me from my father.

Full of rain and sadness, I escaped to my hut. They didn't see where I went.

The family left the cottage.

That night in my anger, I lit a dry branch, and the cottage was soon on fire.

And now, where should I go?

I knew from your papers that you were my creator. I knew you were from Gwiney, so I decided to go there.
MY TRAVELS WERE LONG, AND MY SUFFERINGS WERE GREAT. I USUALLY RESTED DURING THE DAY AND TRAVELED AT NIGHT.

HOWEVER, ONE MORNING I FOUND THAT MY PATH WENT THROUGH A DEEP FOREST. I DECIDED TO CONTINUE WALKING AFTER SUNRISE. IT WAS A BEAUTIFUL SPRING DAY, AND I FELT HAPPY.

I HEARD THE SOUND OF VOICES, SO I HID. A YOUNG GIRL RAN ALONG THE BANK OF THE RIVER.

SUDDENLY HER FOOT SLIPPED, AND SHE FELT INTO THE RIVER!

I PULLED FROM MY HIDING PLACE ...

... AND WITH GREAT DIFFICULTY PULLED HER OUT OF THE WATER.

I TRIED TO BRING HER BACK TO LIFE. SUDDENLY, A MAN CAME TOWARD ME.
HE TORE THE GIRL FROM MY ARMS AND RAN BACK INTO THE FOREST. I FOLLOWED HIM. I DIDN'T REALLY KNOW WHY.

WHEN HE SAW ME, HE AIMED A GUN AT ME...

AFTER A FEW WEEKS, MY WOUND WAS BETTER, AND I CONTINUED MY JOURNEY. I DIDN'T FIND PLEASURE IN ANYTHING. I JUST FELT EXTREMELY UNHAPPY. AFTER TWO MONTHS, I ARRIVED NEAR GENEVA.

I FELL TO THE GROUND, AND THE MAN ESCAPED INTO THE FOREST.

HE RAN UP TO MY HIDING PLACE. I THOUGHT THAT HE WAS TOO YOUNG TO HATE ME.

IF I COULD TEACH HIM TO BE MY FRIEND, I WOULDN'T BE SO LONELY.

I HAD MYSELF IN SOME FIELDS. I WAS TIRED AND HUNGRY. I FELL INTO A LIGHT SLEEP...

... BUT A BEAUTIFUL CHILD WOKE ME US.

I HAD SAVED SOMEONE'S LIFE, AND AS A REWARD I HAD RECEIVED A Dreadful Wound!

IN GREAT PAIN, I PROMISED THAT IN THE FUTURE I WOULD ONLY HATE PEOPLE AND INJURE THEM.

... AND FIRED!

BLAMM!

CRACK!

ARRGH!
CHILD, I'M NOT GOING TO HURT YOU. LISTEN TO ME.

LET ME GO!

MONSTER!

YOU WANT TO EAT ME AND TEAR ME TO PIECES!

YOU BELONG TO MY FAMILY!

YOU'LL BE MY FIRST VICTIM!

BOY, YOU WILL NEVER SEE YOUR FATHER AGAIN. YOU MUST COME WITH ME.

LET ME GO, OR I'LL TELL MY FATHER!

THE CHILD STILL STRUGGLED AND SHOUTED. I TOOK HOLD OF HIS THROAT TO MAKE HIM STOP...

...AND IN A MOMENT, HE LAY DEAD AT MY FEET.

I, TOO, CAN CREATE SORROW! THIS DEATH WILL MAKE MY EVIL MORE MISERABLE AND DESTROY HIM!

I SAW SOMETHING THAT THE CHILD WAS WEARING. IT WAS A PICTURE OF A LOVELY WOMAN.

I REMEMBERED THAT SUCH BEAUTIFUL CREATURES WOULD NEVER BRING ME HAPPINESS.

MY FATHER IS MONSIEUR FRANKENSTEIN. HE'LL PUNISH YOU IF YOU KEEP ME.
I WENT TO FIND A HIDING PLACE AND ENTERED A BARN. A YOUNG WOMAN WAS SLEEPING THERE.
SHE WAS LOVELY.

SHE WAS ONE OF THOSE WHO WOULD NEVER SMILE AT ME.

WAKE UP! YOUR LOVER IS NEAR. SOMEONE WHO WOULD DIE TO HAVE ONE LOOK OF KINDNESS FROM YOU.

I AM ALONE AND Miserable.

PEOPLE HATE ME. YOU MUST CREATE A WOMAN WHO IS AS UGLY AS I AM. SHE WILL NOT RUN AWAY FROM ME. YOU MUST CREATE THIS WOMAN.

I MURDERED THE CHILD BECAUSE I WOULD NEVER HAVE THIS WOMAN’S KINDNESS, SO SHE SHOULD PAY FOR THE MURDER.

I DECIDED THAT NOT I BUT SHE, SHOULD SUFFER.

I PUT THE PICTURE IN HER POCKET.

DO NOT REFUSE!

ONLY YOU CAN DO THIS. YOU MUST NOT REFUSE.

VOLUME II
CHAPTER IX

NO!

SHOULD I CREATE ANOTHER CREATURE LIKE YOURSELF WHO WILL HURT PEOPLE? I’LL NEVER AGREE TO IT!

I AM DANGEROUS BECAUSE I AM Miserable.

WHAT I AM ASKING FOR IS REASONABLE.

YOU MUST Promise TO DO AS I ASK.
ALTHOUGH I FELT AFRAID, I SAW THE TRUTH IN WHAT HE SAID.

HOW CAN YOU LIVE IN WILD PLACES WITHOUT PEOPLE? YOU WANT PEOPLE'S LOVE, AND YOU'LL RETURN TO FIND IT.

I PROMISE YOU THAT I WON'T.

I PROMISE THAT IF YOU GIVE ME THIS, YOU'LL NEVER SEE ME AGAIN!

IF YOU AGREE, NEITHER YOU NOR ANYONE ELSE WILL EVER SEE US AGAIN. WE'LL SLEEP ON DRIED LEAVES AND EAT NUTS AND FRUIT. WE'LL LIVE PEACEFULLY.

WHY SHOULD I TRUST YOU?

THEY WILL HATE YOU, AND THEN YOU'LL WANT TO KILL AGAIN.

THE LOVE OF ANOTHER BEING WILL REMOVE THE CAUSE OF MY CRIMES.

WITH A HEAVY HEART, I WENT DOWN TOWARD THE VALLEY.

I RETURNED TO MY FAMILY IN GENEVA. THEY WERE WORRIED BY MY MILD APPEARANCE. I SAID VERY LITTLE TO THEM, ALTHOUGH I LOVED THEM SO MUCH.

HE WENT DOWN THE MOUNTAIN EXTREMELY QUICKLY AND DISAPPEARED.
VOLUME III
CHAPTER I

Weeks passed, and I could not start my work. I was afraid of the monster, but I hated the task too much, it began to seem less necessary to do it.

My health was much better when I didn't think about my promise, I felt happy.

I'm happy to see you better, my son, but you're still unhappy. You still avoid us, yesterday, I had an idea about what might be the cause of this.

I have always looked forward to your marriage to Elizabeth. But perhaps you think of her as a sister, or you love someone else...

My dear father, I love Elizabeth and want to marry her.

If you feel that way, then we will certainly be happy. Tell me - would you dislike an immediate marriage?

For some time I could not reply to my father.

The idea of an immediate marriage filled me with horror.

I hadn't done what I had promised the monster. I didn't dare break my promise.

First, the monster had to leave with his mate, then I could enjoy the happiness of marriage in peace.

I remembered that I needed to go to England. I had to get new information for my task.

Also, I had to be away from those I loved while I worked.
I persuaded my father to agree to the trip. He hoped it would be good for me.

I could go for a few months or even a year. He asked Clerval to go with me.

I needed to be alone to work, but if Clerval was with me, I wouldn't have hours for lonely thought. And he might even stop the monster from visiting me.

We planned that Elizabeth and I would marry when I returned. For me, this was my reward for completing the task I hated.

I was afraid of leaving my family. My enemy could attack them while I was away.

But he had promised to follow me everywhere. So would he not come to England?

We decided to stay in London for a few months.

It was a wonderful city, but I couldn't enjoy it. A dark cloud hung over me.

This is living!

Clerval wanted to meet men who were clever and full of new ideas. This was not important to me.

My aim was to get the information I needed for my task.

I took my letters of introduction to the most famous natural scientists.
I visited these people only for the information they could give me. I felt despair when I was with other people, I wasn’t like them.

Clerwell was how I had been in the past: he wanted to learn and do new things. He was also working toward achieving something he had wanted for a long time.

He wanted to go to India so that he could become a trader there.

I began to collect the materials that I needed for my new creation.

He was always busy. I often refused to go places with him so that I could be alone.

I hated doing it.

After a few months in London, we received an invitation from a friend in the north of Scotland. I didn’t like being with people, but I wanted very much to see mountains and streams again. We accepted the invitation.

On the way to Edinburgh, we visited Windsor, Oxford, Matlock, and the Cumberland Lakes.

I took my equipment and materials so that I could finish my work in the north of Scotland.

Henry loved the beauty of Edinburgh, but I wanted to finish the journey.

Sometimes I thought the monster had followed me. I was afraid he would kill Henry because I wasn’t working fast enough.
AFTER A WEEK, WE LEFT EDINBURGH AND TRAVELED ON TO PERTH, BUT I DIDN'T WANT TO BE WITH STRANGERS OR TO BE A GUEST IN SOMEONE'S HOUSE.

HENRY, I WANT TO TRAVEL AROUND SCOTLAND ALONE. ENJOY YOUR STAY HERE, AND I'LL MEET YOU HERE IN A MONTH OR TWO.

LET ME BE ALONE FOR A SHORT TIME. WHEN I RETURN, I'LL BE HAPPIER, I HOPE.

I' D RATHER BE WITH YOU THAN WITH THESE PEOPLE THAT I DON'T KNOW.

I HAVE DECIDED TO DO THIS.

THEN HURRY BACK...

MY DEAR FRIEND.

I WANTED TO FIND A PLACE THAT WAS VERY FAR FROM EVERYTHING. I CHOSE A SMALL, ROCKY ISLAND IN THE ORKNEYS. ONLY FIVE PEOPLE AND A FEW COWS LIVED THERE.

I LIVED IN A SMALL HUT. I WORKED DURING THE DAY, AND IN THE EVENING I WALKED ALONG THE STONE BEACH TO LISTEN TO THE WAVES AS THEY CRASHED AT MY FEET.
As the days passed, I began to hate my work more and more. Sometimes I couldn't do it at all...

...and at other times, I worked day and night. I became restless and nervous. The whole time I was afraid of meeting the monster.

When I worked on my first experiment, I felt excited. This time, I felt sick.

Volume III
Chapter III

One evening, I began to think about what I was doing.

Three years earlier, I had created a monster who had done dreadful things.

Now I was making another creature. I didn't know what she would do.

Perhaps she would be worse than her mate and kill for pleasure.

He had promised to live far away from everyone, but she had not made that promise.

Perhaps she would refuse to.
Perhaps they would hate each other. He might think she was ugly.

She might turn away from him. She might leave him and make him more miserable.

Or they could have children who might be dangerous.

For the first time, I realized what I had done. I had bought my own peace at the price, perhaps, of the existence of the whole human race.

Suddenly...

Yes, he had followed me. Now he had come to claim what I had promised him.

I felt crazy when I thought of my promise to create another monster like him.

His face was full of evil.
He gave a cry of despair and revenge and disappeared.

I promised myself that I would never work on this task again.

Several hours passed; then I heard the sound of a boat. Somebody landed near my house.

The monster watched in horror as I destroyed the only creature that could bring him happiness.

You have destroyed your work! Do you intend to break your promise to me? Do you dare destroy my hopes?

Yes, I will break my promise. I will never create another creature like you again!

Remember that I have power.

You are my creator, but I am your master. Obey!
AM I GOING TO BE ALONE, EVEN THOUGH ALL OTHER MEN AND ANIMALS HAVE THEIR MATES? ARE YOU GOING TO BE HAPPY, WHILE I AM MISERABLE? I WILL HAVE MY REVENGE! YOU WILL BE SORRY FOR THE INJURIES YOU HAVE GIVEN ME.

BEFORE YOU KILL ME, BE SURE OF YOUR OWN SAFETY!

HE DISAPPEARED IN HIS BOAT, AND EVERYTHING WAS SILENT AGAIN.

I THOUGHT AGAIN OF HIS WORDS...

"I WILL BE WITH YOU ON YOUR WEDDING NIGHT!"

THAT WAS GOING TO BE THE DAY OF MY DEATH. I DID NOT FEEL AFRAID. I FELT SORRY FOR ELIZABETH. I DECIDED NOT TO DIE WITHOUT A FIGHT.

THE NEXT DAY I RECEIVED A LETTER FROM CLERIAL. HE ASKED ME TO JOIN HIM AGAIN. THE LETTER BROUGHT ME BACK TO REAL LIFE, AND I DECIDED TO LEAVE THE ISLAND.

THE AIR WAS SO PURE THAT I DECIDED TO STAY LONGER ON THE WATER. EVENTUALLY, CLOUDS HID THE MOON. EVERYTHING WAS DARK, AND I HEARD ONLY THE SOUND OF THE BOAT. IN A SHORT TIME, I FELL ASLEEP.
When I woke up, the sun was quite high in the sky. The wind was high, too, and the waves were threatening the safety of my boat.

The wind had driven me a long way from the coast.

When I tried to change direction, water quickly filled the boat. I could only sail with the wind behind me.

I looked at the sea. It was going to be my grave.

Monster! You've got what you wanted!

Some hours passed in this way...

...but slowly the wind became gentler, and the sea became calmer. I was feeling sick and very tired when suddenly I saw land.

I cried with joy. I knew I was finally safe.
I was taken to the judge, an old man with calm and kind manners, he looked at me, however, quite unkindly.

I was out in my boat with my brother-in-law Daniel Nugent.

As I was walking home along the beach, I hit my foot on the body of a man. His clothes were dry. Someone had killed him.

A woman also saw a man in a boat he sailed away from the place where the body was found.

They all agreed that the strong wind had driven me back to the shore - to where I had left the body.

Mr. Kinnin saw that I was badly affected. Of course he thought I was guilty.

My name is Daniel Nugent, Sir.

Just before we found the body, I saw a man in a boat quite close to the shore.

It looked like the same boat that this man had just landed in.

I was calm.

I knew that the people on the island I had left could prove my innocence. I was talking to them when the body was found.

I remembered my brother's murder, and I felt extremely shaken.

No! My dearest Henry! Not you, too!! I have already destroyed two people...

But you, Clerew, my friend...

The sight of Henry was too much for me, I fell down in a fit.
I was very sick for two months. I said some dreadful things in my illness, I learned later.

Yes, it would be better for you if you were dead, but that’s none of my business.

I am just here to take care of you and to make you well.

I called myself the Murderer of William, Justine, and Cleria.

I soon learned that Mr. Kirwin had been extremely kind to me. He had given me the best room in the prison and a doctor and a nurse.

You will soon leave this place, I hope. I’m sure something will show that you are innocent.

Fortunately, only Mr. Kirwin understood my native language, but my loud cries frightened the other people around me.

One day, while I was slowly recovering, he visited me.

When you became sick, I looked through all the papers that you had. I found a letter from your father in Geneva, and I wrote to him.

Why didn’t I die? I was more miserable than anyone had ever been before.

But I survived, and after two months I woke up in prison.

Are you better now, sir?

I believe I am.

I’m sorry I’m still alive to feel this pain and horror.

Oh no!! Tell me...

- Who is dead now?

Your family is perfectly well...
I had to travel nearly a hundred miles to appear in court. Mr. Kirwin arranged my defense.

The court decided that I was innocent. He proved that I was on the Orkney Islands when the body was found.

I was allowed to go free. I could breathe fresh air and go home. But for me, everywhere was hateful. I often wanted to end my life, but I still had one duty: I had to take care of the people I loved, and I had to fight the murderer.

My dearest Elizabeth, I am afraid that little happiness remains for us on earth. However, all my future happiness is centered on you. I promise myself to you and no one else.

I have one, dreadful secret which will fill you with horror. I will tell it to you the day after our marriage. Until then, do not mention it.

Victor

We returned to Geneva. Elizabeth welcomed me warmly.

I remembered the monster's threat: 'I will be with you on your wedding night!'

When we reached Paris, I received a letter from Elizabeth.

... tell me, dearest Victor - do you love someone else?

I love you, but it is your happiness that I desire.

Elizabeth

He had decided to kill me on that night, sweet Elizabeth! I would die to make her happy.
WE GOT MARRIED TEN DAYS LATER. I CARRIED A KNIFE AND A GUN TO PROTECT MYSELF. ELIZABETH SEEMED HAPPY, AND MY FATHER WAS FULL OF JOY.

NO, I LOVE ELIZABETH AND AM LOOKING FORWARD TO OUR WEDDING.

LET'S FIX THE DATE NOW.

ELIZABETH HAD INHERITED FROM HER FAMILY A SMALL HOUSE BY LAKE COMO. WE PLANNED TO SPEND OUR FIRST DAYS THERE. AFTER THE WEDDING, WE WENT BY BOAT TO EVIAN.

YOU'RE SAD, MY LOVE. LET ME ENJOY THE HAPPINESS OF TODAY AFTER EVERYTHING I HAVE SUFFERED.

YOU'RE SAD, MY DEAR VICTOR. SOMETHING WHISPERS TO ME THAT I MUSTN'T LOOK FORWARD TO HAPPINESS, BUT I WON'T LISTEN TO SUCH A VOICE.

WHAT A BEAUTIFUL DAY! HOW HAPPY AND CALM NATURE LOOKS.

THOSE WERE THE LAST MOMENTS OF MY LIFE WHEN I FELT HAPPY.

BUT I HAD ONLY PREPARED FOR MY OWN DEATH, NOT FOR THE DEATH OF ANYONE DEAR TO ME.

AS WE REACHED THE SHORE, MY FEAR RETURNED. IT HAS STAYED WITH ME AND WILL STAY FOREVER.
Suddenly, the wind grew stronger, and a heavy rain came down. I was anxious and held tightly to my gun.

We took a short walk along the shore and admired the lovely scene.

She left me, and I searched the house for the monster...

...but I found nothing.

As I heard the scream, I realized what was happening!

What are you afraid of, Victor?

Oh! It's just the storm.

It's a dreadful night.

Please go to bed, my love. I'll join you later.

Victor...

Elizabeth!!!

I fainted.
When I recovered, I rushed toward her. I held her in my arms.

The marks of the monster's fingers were on her neck.

I looked up at the window...

... and saw the monster. He seemed to smile as he pointed to the dead body of my wife.

Bang!

He ran away and into the lake.

The sound of the gun attracted a crowd who helped me look for the monster. After several hours, we returned. We hadn't found him. Many of the people thought that I had imagined him.

I was in a cloud of confusion and horror. The deaths of William, Justine, Clerval, and now my wife...

... my father and Ernest might die next. I decided to return to Geneva as quickly as possible.
My father and brother were alive, but my father was very badly affected by Elizabeth's death.

When I was allowed to leave, I visited a judge in the town. I wanted to tell him about the monster.

Sir, I know who murdered my brother and my wife. I want you to help me find him.

I'll do everything that I can, sir.

I told him my story at first he couldn't believe it, but as I continued, he became more interested.

It's your duty to catch this murderer.

I'd like to, but this creature sounds too powerful. And no one knows where he could be now.

You refuse to help me? Then I'll find him myself! I'll destroy him!

I left his house angrily. I went away to think about what to do.
REVENGE GAVE ME STRENGTH. I DECIDED TO LEAVE GENEVA FOREVER.

BUT FIRST, I FOUND MYSELF BY THE GRAVES OF WILLIAM, ELIZABETH, AND MY FATHER.

THEIR SPIRITS SEEMED TO FLY AROUND. I FELT VERY ANGRY.

I WILL FOLLOW THE MONSTER WHO HAS CAUSED THESE DEATHS UNTIL EITHER HE DIES OR I DIE!

LET HIM FEEL THE DREADFUL SADNESS THAT I FEEL!

HA HA HA HA HA! I'M HAPPY.

YOU'VE DECIDED TO LIVE, MISERABLE CREATURE!

I RAN TOWARD HIM, BUT HE ESCAPED.

I FOLLOWED HIM THROUGH FRANCE AND THEN TO THE BLACK SEA. THEN I WENT AFTER HIM THROUGH RUSSIA.

HE LEFT MESSAGES ON TREES OR STONES TO GUIDE ME. I BOUGHT A SLED AND DOGS. I CROSSED THE SNOW QUICKLY AND CAME CLOSER TO HIM.

WHEN I HAD ALMOST REACHED HIM, THE ICE BROKE. THE SEA CAME BETWEEN US, AND I WAS LEFT ON A PIECE OF ICE.

WHEN I SAW YOUR SHIP, I MANAGED TO MOVE TOWARD IT.

YOU SAVED ME WHEN I WAS CLOSE TO DEATH. I STILL FEAR DEATH BECAUSE I HAVEN'T COMPLETED MY TASK. IF I DIE, WALTON, FIND HIM AND KILL HIM. PROMISE ME, PLEASE.
LETTER - AUGUST 26, 17---

My dear Margaret, you have read this strange and terrible story. I believe that it is true. This monster really exists! Sometimes I asked Frankenstein about how he made this creature...

Are you crazy, my friend? Do you want to create another monster?

Learn from my mistakes, and don't make yourself completely miserable.

I have finally found the friend I was looking for. However, I think I will lose him. He has no interest in life at all.

Thank you for your kindness, Walton, but all my friends are dead. No one can replace them.

ONLY ONE THOUGHT KEEPS ME ALIVE. I MUST FOLLOW AND DESTROY THE MONSTER I CREATED. THEN I CAN DIE.

LETTER - SEPTEMBER 2, 17---

My dearest sister,

We are surrounded by mountains of ice. The brave men who are with me are in danger. They look to me for help, but I can't give them any. My crazy schemes may be the cause of our deaths.

LETTER - SEPTEMBER 5, 17---

I was afraid that the men would refuse to obey me.

Captain, if the ship gets free of the ice, you must take us south.

We insist.

What do you mean?

What are you demanding?

Are you running away at the first sign of danger? Go home as men who have succeeded, not failed.

The men were unable to reply.

Think about it.

I will not lead you farther north if you do not want to go.

Yes, Captain.
September 12, 17 --

It is over. I am returning to England. I have lost my hopes of glory - and I have lost my friend.

Three days ago, the ice began to move. Islands of ice broke off in all directions. We were in great danger, but we could do nothing. My unfortunate guest was so sick that he had to stay in bed.

---

LETTER - SEPTEMBER 7, 17 --

THE MATTER IS SETTLED, I HAVE AGREED TO RETURN IF WE GET FREE OF THE ICE. I AM VERY DISAPPOINTED.

---

I WON'T COME WITH YOU. I MUST DO WHAT I HAVE PROMISED.

---

I'M WEAK, BUT THE SPIRITS WHO HELP ME WILL GIVE ME STRENGTH.

---

HE TRIED TO GET OUT OF HIS BED, BUT IT WAS TOO MUCH FOR HIM, HE FELL BACK AND FAINTED.

---

THE DOCTOR TOLD ME THAT HE WOULD LIVE FOR ONLY A FEW HOURS.

---

THEY'RE HAPPY BECAUSE THIS MEANS WE'LL SOON GO BACK TO ENGLAND.

---

ARE YOU REALLY GOING TO GO BACK?

---

YES, I CAN'T LEAD THEM INTO GREATER DANGER.

---

AH! My strength has gone. I will soon die, and my enemy may still be alive.

---

I was crazy when I made him. He destroyed my family and friends. He ought to die so that he doesn't kill anyone else.

---

But I can't ask you to leave your country and friends to find him.
I must go now to the arms of the people I love. Good-bye, Watson! Find happiness in peace.

THUD!

THAT NOISE ...
... A VOICE ...
... FROM FRANKENSTEIN'S ROOM!

GREAT GOD!

WHEN HE HEARD ME, HE RAN TOWARD THE WINDOW.

STAY!
HE IS ALSO MY VICTIM!
OH, FRANKENSTEIN!
CAN YOU PARDON ME?
I, WHO DESTROYED YOU AND ALL THOSE YOU LOVED? AH - HE'S COLD.
HE CAN'T ANSWER ME.

I DID NOT KILL MY FRIEND'S ENEMY IMMEDIATELY BECAUSE I FELT BOTH INTERESTED IN HIM AND SORRY FOR HIM.

YOUR REGRET IS USELESS NOW. WHY DIDN'T YOU FEEL ANY EARLIER, WHEN HE WAS ALIVE?

DO YOU THINK THAT I DIDN'T?
DO YOU THINK THAT I ENJOYED KILLING CLEVAL?
IT WAS TERRIBLE. YOU CANNOT IMAGINE IT.

AFTER THE MURDER OF CLEVAL, I FELT SORRY FOR FRANKENSTEIN. BUT WHEN I DISCOVERED THAT HE HOPE FOR HAPPINESS, I WANTED REVENGE.
I KNEW IT WOULD MAKE ME UNHAPPY, BUT I HAD TO HAVE IT.

BUT WHEN SHE DIED, I WAS NOT MISERABLE. IN FACT, EVIL WAS WHAT I ENJOYED.
AND NOW IT HAS ENDED. THERE IS THE LAST VICTIM!

MONSTER! HOW CAN YOU COMPLAIN ABOUT THE SUFFERING YOU HAVE CAUSED?
YOU AREN'T SAD THAT HE IS DEAD, YOU'RE SAD THAT YOU CAN NO LONGER HURT HIM!
NO, NO, IT'S NOT LIKE THAT.

I DON'T WANT YOU TO FEEL SORRY FOR ME. I'M CONTENT TO SUFFER ALONE.

AT ONE TIME, I HOPE FOR HUMAN LOVE, BUT MY CRIMES HAVE PLACED ME BELOW THE LOWEST ANIMAL.

WHEN I REMEMBER EVERYTHING THAT I HAVE DONE, I CANNOT BELIEVE THAT I AM THE SAME CREATURE THAT AT ONE TIME WANTED ONLY BEAUTY AND GOODNESS.
BUT IT IS SO. THE FALLEN ANGEL BECOMES A DEVIL.
YOU SEEM TO KNOW ALL ABOUT MY CRIMES.

BUT FRANKENSTEIN COULD NOT TELL YOU ABOUT THE MONTHS OF SUFFERING THAT I HAVE HAD.

AM I THE ONLY ONE WHO HAS DONE WHATEVER WHAT ABOUT THOSE PEOPLE WHO HATED ME?

IT IS TRUE THAT I AM A MURDERER.

I HAVE CAUSED GREAT SUFFERING FOR MY CREATOR. THERE HE LIES, WHITE AND COLD IN DEATH.

YOU HATE ME -

- BUT I HATE MYSELF MUCH MORE.

I WON'T HURT ANYONE ELSE.

MY WORK IS NEARLY COMPLETE. NOW ONLY MY OWN DEATH IS REQUIRED.

I WILL LEAVE YOUR SHIP AND GO TO THE NORTHWESTERN MOST PART OF THE WORLD.

I WILL DIE.

THEN, I WON'T FEEL UNHAPPY AND HAVE FEELINGS THAT I CANNOT SATISFY.

MY CREATOR IS DEAD. WHEN I AM DEAD, THE MEMORY OF US BOTH WILL SOON DISAPPEAR. I WON'T SEE THE SUN OR THE STARS OR FEEL THE WIND ON MY FACE. I WILL FEEL NOTHING, AND IN THIS STATE, I MUST FIND MY HAPPINESS.
Soon, I will die, and my unhappiness will be over. I will be happy at last in the pain of the fire!

HAAAAARRRRGGHHHHH!

My spirit will sleep in peace.

Good-bye! You are the last person I will ever see.

Good-bye, Frankenstein! I will regret what I did until -

I die!

He was soon carried away and was lost in the darkness and distance.
Frankenstein

Character Summary

Victor Frankenstein
The main character and narrator of most of the story, Victor begins the story as an innocent youth fascinated by scientific discovery. By the end, he is a broken man, torn by grief and guilt. While studying at the university, Frankenstein discovers the secret of life. He creates an intelligent but horrifying monster. However, he instantly regrets his creation and tries to hide from his mistake. He keeps his monster a secret. Soon, it becomes obvious to everyone that Frankenstein cannot stop his monster from ruining his life and the lives of the people he loves.

Frankenstein’s Monster
Formed from parts of dead bodies, the monster is Victor Frankenstein’s extremely tall, very strong, and terrifyingly ugly creation. Although he is strong, Frankenstein’s monster has the mind of a newborn baby. Sensitive and smart, the monster tries to join human society, but every human he meets is afraid of him. At first, he feels alone and abandoned. Soon, however, he feels angry and seeks revenge.

Elizabeth Lavenza
An orphan adopted by the Frankenstein family. She is almost the same age as Victor, and they are very close as children. For most of the novel, Elizabeth waits patiently for Victor while taking care of his younger brothers, Ernest and William. Eventually, Elizabeth and Victor marry.

Robert Walton
The Arctic traveler. Walton’s letters begin and end the story of Frankenstein. Walton rescues Victor Frankenstein from the ice and nurses him back to health. As Frankenstein recovers, he tells Walton his story. Walton narrates the incredible tale in a series of letters to his sister, Margaret Saville, in England.

Henry Clerval
Victor Frankenstein’s cheerful childhood friend. Clerval helps Victor recover his health after creating the monster. Clerval also begins to study science and travels with Frankenstein.

Alphonse Frankenstein
Victor’s father. Alphonse is very sympathetic toward his son and tries to teach him good values. Alphonse consoles Victor when he’s in pain and encourages him to remember the importance of family.

Caroline Frankenstein
Victor’s mother. After her father dies, Caroline is taken care of by and later marries, Alphonse Frankenstein. She has three sons and adopts a daughter. She dies of scarlet fever which shecatches from her adopted daughter, Elizabeth, when Victor is seventeen.

William Frankenstein
Victor’s youngest brother. The monster strangles William in the woods outside Geneva because he wants to hurt Victor. William’s death burdens Victor with immense guilt about creating the monster.

Ernest Frankenstein
Victor’s brother who was born in Geneva and taken care of by Elizabeth after their mother dies.

Justine Moritz
A young girl who works for the Frankenstein family. Justine is blamed for William’s murder. Although she is innocent, Justine is executed which makes Victor feel even worse.

The De Lacey
A family of peasants. Monsieur De Lacey lives with his son, Felix; daughter, Agatha; and Felix’s lover, Safie. Frankenstein’s monster teaches himself to speak by observing the De Lacey. The monster desperately wants to be friends with them. However, when he meets them, they are scared of him and chase him away.

Monsieur Waldman
A professor of chemistry. Waldman encourages Victor’s interest in science. He understands Victor’s interest in a science that can explain the unexplainable, such as “the origins of life.”

Monsieur Krempe
A professor of natural science. Krempe dismisses Victor’s study of chemistry as a waste of time. He encourages Victor to begin new studies.

Mr. Kirwin
The magistrate who accuses Victor of Henry’s murder.

"How I, then a young girl, came to think of ... so very hideous an idea?"

In the summer of 1816, Mary Wollstonecraft Godwin, a well-educated young woman from England, traveled with Percy Bysshe Shelley, her married lover, to the Swiss Alps. Unusual for that time of year, rain kept them indoors. There, along with their friend the scientist and poet John William Polidori, they entertained themselves by reading old German ghost stories. The couple's neighbor and friend, the well-known poet Lord Byron, held a competition to see who could write the best ghost story. Shelley wrote a story based on his life experiences; Byron wrote a bare fragment of a novel; and Polidori is believed to have begun The Vampyre.

At first, Mary did not have any ideas, but she was nevertheless determined to write a story which would "spook the mysterious fears of our nature, and awaken thrilling horror — one to make the reader dread to look around, to curl the blood, and quicken the beatings of the heart." During one of the group's gatherings that summer, they debated the nature and origin of life. They discussed whether modern science would ever discover the origin of life. Such conversations considerably affected Mary. Not long afterward, Mary imagined the birth of a horrifying, human-made man, who was created almost as one would create an engine. Mary's story had started: the monster had his creator.

By the end of the summer, Mary Wollstonecraft Godwin won the prize in Byron's competition. She had created a terrifying story that was to become a bestseller in her own time and a classic that still affects readers nearly two centuries later.

Frankenstein: Plot

Rising action (1): Frankenstein talks with his monster and agrees to create a second monster as a companion for the first. However, just as the second monster is almost complete, Frankenstein realizes that he cannot make the same mistake twice and destroys his work — to the horror and anger of the monster.

Rising action (2): Frankenstein talks with his monster and agrees to create a second monster as a companion for the first. However, just as the second monster is almost complete, Frankenstein realizes that he cannot make the same mistake twice and destroys his work — to the horror and anger of the monster.

Mini-climax: The murder of William Frankenstein by the monster. Victor realizes the extent of what he has done and begins to suspect the possibility of preventing more bloodshed.

Background: Shortly after the death of his mother, Victor Frankenstein leaves his family to study natural science and chemistry at the university in Ingolstadt. His fiancé, Elizabeth, waits patiently at home while he searches for the "secret of life." After much study, Frankenstein creates a living creature from parts of dead bodies.

Foresighting: Throughout his story, Victor uses words such as "fate" and "omen" to hint at the tragedy that will come. Occasionally, he passes while telling his story as frightening memories come flooding back to him.

Primary narrator(s): Robert Walton quotes Victor Frankenstein's first-person narrative in his letters; Victor, in turn, quotes the monster's first-person narrative.

Secondary narrator(s): Elizabeth Lavenza and Alphonse Frankenstein narrate parts of the story through their letters to Victor.

Point of view: The point of view shifts from Robert Walton to Victor Frankenstein, to Frankenstein's monster, and then back to Walton. Elizabeth and Alphonse's points of view also are occasionally heard.

Hero and villain: Victor Frankenstein is both a classic mad scientist, crossing moral boundaries without concern, and a brave adventurer who travels into unknown scientific lands and is not held responsible for the consequences of his explorations.

Themes: The danger and responsibility of knowledge; the wonder and beauty of nature; the moral lesson that pride must have its fall; monstrousity and secrecy

Symbols: Fire, light

Climax: The murder of Elizabeth Lavenza on the night of her wedding to Victor Frankenstein.

Falling action: After the murder of Elizabeth Lavenza, Victor Frankenstein chases the monster to the northern ice and is rescued by Robert Walton to whom he narrates his story and dies.

Mary Shelley was born Mary Wollstonecraft Godwin in London on August 30, 1797. Her parents were famous philosophers, writers, and intellectuals. Her mother, Mary Wollstonecraft, was the author of "A Vindication of the Rights of Woman." This important, early feminist book encouraged women to think and act for themselves—as equals with men. William Godwin was respected in England for his influential social and political ideas.

Wollstonecraft died ten days after Mary was born. William Godwin married his neighbor, Mary Jane Vial (Clairmont), when Mary was four years old. This marriage gave Mary and her older half-sister, Fanny, a mother, a stepbrother, and a stepsister. William and his new wife had a son in 1803.

Mary Wollstonecraft Godwin's remarkable background allowed her to appreciate modern ideas and gave her the chance to meet important people such as the English poet, Lord Byron. She did not receive a formal education; she was taught to read and write at home. Her father encouraged her to be creative from an early age, and she was allowed to use her father's extensive library. She was also allowed to listen to the political, philosophical, scientific, and literary discussions of her father and his friends such as the poets William Wordsworth and Samuel Taylor Coleridge.

Among the important literary figures Mary met was Percy Bysshe Shelley, a famous young poet. Percy was nineteen years old and had already been expelled from Oxford University. His relationship with his own family was troubled. Yet Percy greatly admired William Godwin. Percy, his young wife, Harriet Shelley, and his sister-in-law, Eliza, began spending time in the Godwin home. Soon afterward, Mary and Percy began a relationship although Mary's father had forbidden them to meet.

When Mary was only sixteen years old, she and Percy ran away together to travel in France, Switzerland, and Germany. The young lovers took Mary's stepsister, Claire, with them but left Percy's pregnant wife, Harriet, behind. Mary and Percy's affair soon became strained because of Harriet's demands which worsened after they returned to London. By now, Mary was also pregnant. However, in 1816, Harriet drowned herself in the Serpentine River in Hyde Park in London. To the outrage of polite society, Mary Wollstonecraft married Percy Shelley two weeks later, on December 30, 1816, at St. Mildred's Church in London. Fortunately for the couple, Percy inherited his grandfather's estate, which freed them from the financial pressure they had previously experienced.

Mary and Percy's relationship was not only romantic but also literary. He edited the manuscript for "Frankenstein" which Mary had begun while they were in Switzerland, and he also wrote the preface. "Frankenstein" was eventually completed in May 1817, but it was not published until January 1, 1818, when it became an instant bestseller. However, even then, Mary was not named as the author, and many people incorrectly believed that it was written by Percy Shelley. This was because the book was dedicated to William Godwin, whom everyone knew that Percy greatly admired. In fact, "Frankenstein" was not published in Mary's name until 1831. Tragically for Mary, many terrible events occurred while her novel was successful. From 1815 to 1819, three of her four children died as babies. The Shelleys moved to Florence, Italy, in October 1819. In May 1822, they moved to La Spezia. There, on June 16, Mary and Percy's fifth child died before it was born. Barely a month later, Percy drowned off the shore of Tuscany. At 25, Mary was already a widow and single mother.

Mary and her only surviving child, Percy Florence, left Italy in the summer of 1823 and returned to England. Always resourceful, Mary edited her husband's poetry and prose and published his Posthumous Poems in 1824 and his Poetical Works and Letters in 1839. Mary Shelley did not remarry; instead, she dedicated the rest of her time to her own writing. "Valperga" was published in 1823; "The Last Man" in 1826; "The Fortunes of Perkin Warbeck" in 1830; "Lodore" in 1835; and "Falkner" in 1837. However, none of her later works are as well known or as influential as her first novel, "Frankenstein."

Starting in 1839 serious illness plagued Mary. She lived to see her only child, Percy Florence, marry in 1848. Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley died on February 1, 1851, at 53. The cause of death is recorded as "disease of the brain—supposed tumor in left hemisphere of long standing." She is buried next to her parents at St. Peter's Church in Bournemouth.
